For Parents & Sunday School

Twelve pictures tell the story of Jesus' birth, from the angel's visit to Mary to the night the shepherds came. Color them in order at home or in Sunday school. The pictures are gentle on purpose.

How to use this book

Read the Bible line under each picture aloud, then color. A beginning reader can try the short line. Little kids color the big shapes. Older kids can add the small flowers, stars, wings, and robes.

The story in this book

1. Gabriel appears to Mary — an angel brings quiet news. Jesus' name means "The Lord saves."
2. Mary says yes — she calls herself the Lord's servant.
3. Mary visits Elizabeth — two mothers meet with joy.
4. An angel speaks to Joseph — in a dream he is told the child's name.
5. Caesar's decree — everyone goes to be registered.
6. The journey to Bethlehem — Mary and Joseph travel to the city of David.
7. No room at the inn — they are turned toward a stable.
8. Jesus is born — the baby is laid in a manger.
9. Angels and the shepherds — good news in the fields at night.
10. The shepherds visit — they find the baby in the manger.
11. The shepherds tell everyone — the people are amazed.
12. Mary treasures these things — she keeps them in her heart.

Talk together

- What did the angel tell Mary?
- How did Mary answer?
- Why did Mary and Joseph go to Bethlehem?
- Who came to see the baby?
- What did Mary keep in her heart?
