Volume 2

Five more Bible stories to color: a sea path, a baby in a manger, an empty tomb, Joseph's coat, and Ruth in the field.

Stories in this volume

1. Moses and the Red Sea — a path through the water.

Exodus tells of a dry path through the sea, and a safe shore.

2. The Nativity — a manger, and shepherds who come to see.

Jesus is born in Bethlehem. Shepherds visit the baby.

3. Easter morning — an empty tomb.

The women find the stone rolled away and the tomb empty.

4. Joseph — a patterned coat, and grain for Egypt.

Joseph's coat is a gift. Later he stores grain to share.

5. Ruth — gleaning in the field, and walking with Naomi.

Ruth gathers leftover grain and stays loyal to Naomi.

Talk together

- What did the families see when the sea opened?
- Who came to visit the baby in the manger?
- What did the women find at the tomb?
- How did Joseph help hungry people?
- How did Ruth show kindness to Naomi?

Print & color

US Letter and A4 files are included. Print the file that matches your paper, portrait, actual size (100%).

Bold lines are for little crayons; small flowers and robes give older kids something extra to color.

Ages about 3-12.

Personal use

Print these for your home, classroom, or Sunday school. Please don't resell the files or the prints.
